

BERTIE - YEAR 3

There are things about yourself that you must never tell people online

Always be nice to people on the internet - don't say nasty things or send mean messages

If something pops up, or if you see or something that makes you feel sad or scared, always tell a trusted adult

Before you go on a new site, game or app you should always check with an adult at home first