

ONLINE SAFETY

There are things about yourself that you must never tell people online

Before you go on a new site, game or app you should always check with an adult at home first

If something pops up, or if you see or something that makes you feel sad or scared, always tell a trusted adult

Always be nice to people on the internet - don't say nasty things or send mean messages